Dear Delwin:

Sometime ago I told Lt. Col. Ehrlicher to appoint a board to investigate the Dave Ferry matter. He told me you had been made chairman. Has this board ever met? If not, why? If so, why havn't I been notified of the results?

I want this hearing to be completely fair and impartial, and to be judged strictly on the merits as presented; no personality to be entered into it whatsoever.

Kindest personal regards and best wishes, I am

Yours very truly,

W. D. Haas
